and she had her passage ticket in her pocket. She is still in Kearney. It is said in the neighborhood that a few minutes before

New York to board the steamer Mis. Duffy went into the woodshed on her premises; and when she returned to the house she was very weak and pale. She announced her determination not to go to Europe, and immediately took to her bed. Or Thursday she was removed to the house of her niece, Mrs. Thomas McCormick, in Harrison, where she is very ill. The reason given by several persons in Harrison yesterday for the sudden change in Mrs. Duffy's plans is that when she went into the woodshed she saw the ghost of her husband, who told her that she must not take the voyage. The woman's husband died in the Hudson county jall in May of last year. He had been arrested and locked up on a charge of attempting to poison his wife by putting paris green in some lager beer that he had purchased for her. His death was due to delirium tremens, The affair caused a great sensation in Kearney and Herrison at the time, as Dufly was a prominent florist and nurseryman. Mrs. McCormack says that her aunt did not sail
